Dear Mr. Whiteford:

Upon returning to my office, I find your letter of 17 October inviting me to address the Military Intelligence Association of Maryland sometime in the next three months.

I sincerely regret that I will be unable to accept your kind invitation even though you were good enough to leave the choice of a date to me. In view of my official position, it is necessary for me to restrict my talks to the various government service schools except on a rare occasion when I make an outside address. Unfortunately, I cannot make an additional commitment at this time.

Your courtesy in asking me to join you is indeed appreciated.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
